Graphius Group Strengthens Its Position in the Netherlands with the Acquisition of NPN Drukkers

As of 7 January 2025, Graphius Group has completed the acquisition of NPN Drukkers in Breda.

NPN Drukkers is a renowned player in the graphic industry, known for its high-quality printing and service. This strategic acquisition marks a significant milestone for Graphius Group, solidifying the group's position in the Netherlands.

The Netherlands has been an important market for Graphius Group for decades, but production has always been based in Belgium. With local production, Graphius aims to establish stronger roots and expand its customer base.

Through the integration of NPN Drukkers, the printing company will benefit from the economies of scale and advanced facilities within Graphius Group. NPN Drukkers' operations will continue under its existing name, offering many employees the opportunity to retain their current roles and be part of the group's future growth.

Denis Geers, CEO of Graphius Group:

"The acquisition of NPN Drukkers perfectly aligns with our ambition to establish a stronger presence in the Netherlands with a local production facility. NPN Drukkers has built an excellent reputation through years of expertise and a customer-focused approach. By joining forces, we can elevate the quality and efficiency of our services for our Dutch customers to an even higher level."

Erik De Lorme, NPN Drukkers:

"Collaborating with Graphius Group offers NPN Drukkers a unique opportunity to grow within an international organization that, like us, values quality and innovation. This is a positive development for our customers, employees, and suppliers. I am proud that NPN Drukkers' legacy will be further strengthened under the wings of a solid and ambitious group like Graphius."

About Graphius Group
